

WGC at the OLYMPIC GAMES

Paris 2024

The Paris 2024 Olympic Games marks the fifth consecutive Olympics where WGC gymnasts have represented Australia. Emily Whitehead and Breanna Scott, alongside coach Yusuf Topari were selected to the Australian Team. Breanna finished 12th on Beam and Emily earned the title of Dual Olympian.

Tokyo 2020

At the 2020 Tokyo Olympics (held in 2021), Emily Whitehead represented Australia after earning a quota spot to represent Australia by winning the Continental Championships in May 2021. WGC coach John Hart, was also selected as Gymnastics WAG Head Coach for Australia. Emily successfully hit all four apparatus in Tokyo.

Rio 2016

At the 2016 Rio Olympics Larrissa Miller was the only Australian WAG gymnast selected to represent Australia along with coach John Hart. Competing at the 2016 Rio Olympics earned Larrissa the title of Dual Olympian.

London 2012

At the 2012 London Olympics, Georgia Bonora was selected onto the London Olympic Team and was accompanied by coach John Hart where the team finished in 10th position. Competing in the 2012 London Olympics earned Georgia the title of Dual Olympian.

Beijing 2008

At the 2008 Beijing Olympics, WGC had 2 gymnasts selected as well as the selected travelling reserve coached by John Hart & Shaoyi Jiang. Georgia Bonora and Shona Morgan went on to become the highest-scoring Aus gymnasts placing 13th and 15th AA and were the two highest contributors to the team result of 6th place – Australia's best result in Olympic WAG gymnastics history.

Youth Olympics

At the 2010 inaugural Youth Olympics, Angela Donald was selected as Australia's sole WAG representative, where she made history as Australia's first and only WAG Gymnastics medalist when she won the bronze medal on beam.

WGC AT WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS & COMMONWEALTH GAMES

WGC gymnasts have successfully represented Australia at 13 WAG World Championships.

2025 World Championships (Jakarta)

Breanna Scott

2025 Junior World Championships 2025 (Manila)

Alice Johnson

2023 World Championships (Belgium)

Breanna Scott, Emily Whitehead, Miella Brown

2022 World Championships (Liverpool)

Romi Brown, Emily Whitehead

2019 World Championships (Stuttgart)

Kate McDonald, Talia Folino

2018 World Championships (Doha)

Emily Whitehead

2017 World Championships (Montreal)

Talia Folino

2015 World Championships (Scotland)

Larrissa Miller

2014 World Championships (China)

Larrissa Miller

2010 World Championships (Netherlands)

Georgia Bonora, Reserve Emma Dennis

2009 World Championships (London)

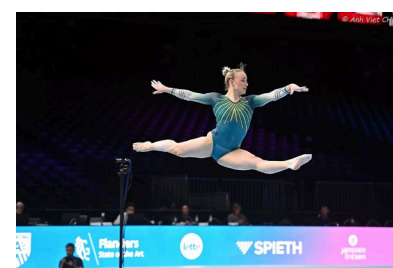

Shona Morgan, Georgia Bonora

2007 World Championships (Stuttgart)

Shona Morgan, Georgia Bonora

2006 World Championships (Denmark)

Georgia Bonora, Shona Morgan

WGC gymnasts have medaled individually and as a team in the last four Commonwealth Games.

2022 Commonwealth Games (Birmingham)

Emily Whitehead (Floor Bronze Medalist; Team Silver Medalist)

Romi Brown (Team Silver Medalist)

2018 Commonwealth Games (Gold Coast)

Emily Whitehead (Vault Bronze Medalist; Team Bronze Medalist)

2014 Commonwealth Games (Glasgow)

Larrissa Miller (Bars Silver Medalist; Team Silver Medalist)

2010 Commonwealth Games (Delhi)

Georgia Bonora (AA Bronze Medalist; Bars Silver Medalist; Team Gold Medalist)

